To better serve and engage its communities, this website requests information via forms or contests in which participation is strictly voluntary. Information requested may include personal information such as first and last name, phone number, email and zip code.

Social Media Terms of Use

Social media is defined as "websites and applications that enable users to create and share content or to participate in social networking". (dictionary.com)

Trinity River Authority's social media websites are public information. Any posts or comments made by public users on these websites are considered public information and are subject to the Texas Public Information Act.

The Trinity River Authority's social media pages are housed on third party websites that have their own individual terms of service and policies that are not governed by the Trinity River Authority. By visiting any social media account operated by the Trinity River Authority, users agree to abide by the terms set forth below and must abide by applicable state and federal laws, including copyright and defamation laws, as well as the terms of service, terms of use, privacy policies and other requirements of any communications platforms used.

Users participate at their own risk and are responsible for their comments, photos and any other information provided on the Trinity River Authority's social media sites, including ensuring permission has been granted for submitted content. All posts and comments are public and subject to disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act.

The Trinity River Authority has the right to remove any posts that include:

- Obscene, indecent or profane language or material;
- Insults, personal attacks or defamatory statements;
- Content that implies, promotes, encourages or incites violence or illegal activities;
- Discriminatory content;
- Advertisements or promotions for commercial products or services, entities or individuals;
- Content that is used without permission or in violation of federal or state copyright or trademark laws;
- Personal identification information;
- Information that could reasonably compromise public safety;
- Comments regarding political campaigns, candidates or officeholders; and
- Any other content deemed inappropriate at the sole discretion of the Trinity River Authority.

The Trinity River Authority is not liable for content posted by any public user on any forum, message board or other social media resource. The views expressed in comments reflect those of the author and do not reflect the official views of the Trinity River Authority. Users who violate these terms of use may be blocked from the Trinity River Authority's social media accounts.
